

Law360 Highlights Banner Witcoff Move in Chicago Brick & Mortar Series

Law360 recently conducted a survey on Chicago law firm office size and subsequently published a three-part series, revealing a trend towards firm's reducing their total footprint.

Banner Witcoff participated in the survey and president Andy Mu provided insight into why this trend is taking hold in the Windy City, especially considering the firm's own move in 2019 to 71 S. Wacker Drive.

“Being around for close to 100 years now, we wanted to enter this next hundred years having a modern look,” said Mu. “We’re trying to value quality over quantity here. To send a message to not only clients, but also candidates. It’s a modern refresh.”
