

Marguerite Smith Joins American Bar Association Podcast The SciTech Lawyer Perspective

Banner Witcoff's Marguerite Smith recently sat on a podcast for the American Bar Association (ABA) called The SciTech Lawyer Perspective.

In the episode, "Launching Your Career in Law, Science, and Technology," Marguerite discusses available roles, how to gain experience in the field, the STEM skills that transfer into working in law, science and technology, and practical tips for students.

The SciTech Lawyer is the official podcast of the ABA Science & Technology Law Section. It explores the intersection of science, technology, and the law.
