

Novaira Paul elected General Director on SABA Chicago Executive Board

Novaira Paul was elected a General Director on the South Asian Bar Association of Chicago Executive Board.

SABA Chicago is a volunteer bar association that serves the needs of Chicagoland's South Asian community. Its purpose is to promote professional development for South Asian legal professionals; provide a forum for South Asian legal professionals to meet and exchange information and ideas; and disseminate on pro bono and other civic activities within the South Asian community.

Click here for more information.

Posted: January 4, 2019