

The Future of Clean Energy Driven by IP: Justin Philpott Moderates Panel at IPO Annual Meeting

Banner Witcoff's Justin Philpott will moderate a panel at the 2024 IPO Annual Meeting on September 22-24 in Chicago.

The panel, The Future of Clean Energy Driven by IP, will be on Tuesday, September 24 at 11am, and will explore recent developments for a clean energy future through the lens of patents and related IP initiatives. Speakers will discuss federal funding and its impact on companies developing IP and implementing innovations in clean energy. They will also explore the impact that standards, patents, and IP policies may have on advancing clean energy technologies. The panel will address recent challenges, such as in the EV industry, and explore possible solutions with a focus on patents and IP.

The firm is proud to sponsor the IPO Fun Run/Walk on Monday, September 23. The run/walk will allow participants to take in the sights of Chicago during a 5k run or 3k walk.
