

Webinar: Patentable Subject Matter After Bilski

July 12, 2010

Event web image.GIF A Banner & Witcoff and BNA Recorded Webinar:

Patentable Subject Matter After Bilski

On July 8, 2010, the lawyers of Banner & Witcoff and University of Richmond School of Law Professor Christopher Cotropia, led a panel discussion on the highly anticipated U.S. Supreme Court decision in Bilski v. Kappos.
Click here to view the 90-minute recorded program.

*Please note CLE credit is only available for attending the live event. Listening to a recording of the webinar does not qualify you for CLE credit.

Program Highlights:

- Gain an understanding of how this decision will affect your existing patents.
- Learn the best strategies and practices to protect your business method innovations in light of this decision.
- Learn tips on prosecuting business method patent applications in the USPTO.
- Learn how to evaluate the merits of continuing to prosecute existing business method applications in the USPTO.

Please contact any of the presenters with your questions, or contact any Banner & Witcoff attorney for more information about the firm's capabilities in this specialized area of law. If you have technical difficulties with the webinar program file, please contact the webmaster at info@bannerwitcoff.com.

Posted: July 12, 2010

